SIR,

In forwarding herewith copy of letter No.A2-3.110C/32-33 dated 18-11-32 from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, in the matter of the construction of a new temple dedicated to Sri Eswaradevaru at Thelur village, Bagepalli taluk, I have the honor to state that one Chinta Nagappa Narayanaswami requests permission to construct the aforesaid temple and a mantap on one gunta of land in S.No.5 which is stated to be in the khata of one Kare Ramareddi who gave away the entire S.No. to the applicant as a charity on 23-3-28 and has no objection to the land being utilised for the purpose intended by the petitioner.

Q

2. The petitioner has agreed to pay 3 years assessment on one gunta of land required for the purpose which comes to Rs 6-12-0 and has executed a mutchalika binding himself not to object to any procession etc., passing in front of the temple.

The villagers are stated to have also no objection to the construction of the temple in question.

R

3. The Deputy Commissioner recommends that the permission sought for may be granted.

4. In the above circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may kindly be accorded to the construction of the proposed temple and the Mantap at the cost of the petitioner.

4

On receipt of sanction, action will be taken for the alienation of the land required for the purpose.

6. The file of vernacular papers is herewith submitted for reference and obliging return,

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
